‘Jo dikhta hai, woh bikta hai.’

Welcome to Ad'venturium, where you shall create advertisements that stick. From dystopian societies to futuristic realms, your product must adapt, evolve and thrive under unexpected realities because in every world, your pitch is your superpower.

AD'VENTURIUM—RULES OF PROCEDURE

GENERAL RULES

Teams will pitch a random everyday object in a completely reimagined way in the form of an advertisement, integrating its real-world use with that of the rebranded object.

Round Structure:

1. Blind Draw:

One member of the team picks a chit with an object named on it. This will be the object that they have to promote in their advertisement.

2. World Reveal:

The team will draw another chit revealing a world, environment or universe. They must present their advertisement as if their product exists within this setting, adapting its purpose, storytelling and appeal accordingly. Creative use of the world's unique environment and culture is encouraged.

3. The Midway-Twist:

Halfway through the preparation time (at the 45-minute mark), teams will receive a twist to incorporate into their advertisement.

Preparation Time: 1.5 Hours

4. The Pitch

Present the rebranded object in the form of an advertisement. All 3 members must speak during the pitch. The presentation of the advertisement can be done using a PowerPoint presentation or jingles and skits.

Minimum Pitch Time: 2.5 Minutes per Team

Maximum Pitch Time: 3 Minutes per Team
