

C1: GRADES 9 – 10

2 PARTICIPANTS

4 HOURS

C2: GRADES 11 – 12

PER CATEGORY

Freedom is hammered out on the anvil of discussion, dissent, and debate. Debate is a force for good that has the power to change anything- from politics to the hearts of people. As citizens of the world, it is better to debate a question without settling it than to settle a question without debating it. At Admeta, we invite you to harness the powers of logic and emotion to debate on topics that govern the universe around us. This event will force you to maintain composure under extreme pressure and use persuasion as your foremost tool. Welcome to Admeta, an epitome of the saying, “The pen is mightier than the sword.” The podium awaits you.

ADMETA—RULES OF PROCEDURE

PRELIMINARY ROUND

- 2 speakers per category: Both participants speak on the same side.
- 2 minutes of collective speaking time per team (Approximately 1 minute speech per speaker). Crossing 2 minutes will result in a negative marking.
- The bell will be rung once at the 1-minute mark and twice at the 2-minute mark (unless the team requests a different timing for the bell). If any team crosses 2 minutes, the moderator will inform the judges about the same.
- The opposing team may ask one question, to which the speaking team has 1 minute to respond.
- Participants are not permitted to use the internet during this round.

Total: 3 minutes per team

Note:

If there is an odd number of participants, one additional team will be created, composed of students from the Host School. These participants will not be allowed to move on to Round 2.

FINAL ROUND

Participants: Top 4 teams from Preliminary Round

Format: British Parliamentary Format

Each team will be allotted one of four stances [Opening Government, Opening Opposition, Closing Government and Closing Opposition]. Both the Government stances will be for the motion, and both the Opposition stances will be against the motion. Within each of the stances, there are 2 unique roles, which the team can divide at their own discretion. The roles and speaking order will be as follows:

- Prime Minister [Opening Government],
- Leader of the Opposition [Opening Opposition],
- Dep. Prime Minister [Opening Government],
- Dep. Leader of Opposition [Opening Opposition],
- Member of Government [Closing Government],
- Member of Opposition [Closing Opposition],

ADMETA—RULES OF PROCEDURE

- Government Whip [Closing Government],
- Opposition Whip [Closing Opposition].

Participants are expected to understand the roles and duties of each of these roles and represent them in the debate.

Preparation Time:

Participants will be randomly allotted their stances 15 minutes before the debate (following the announcement of Preliminary Round Results). In these 15 minutes, participants will be permitted to access the internet. However, they will not be allowed to use the internet during the debate. They will be randomly allotted a stance by a drawing of chits. Participants will receive the motion for the final round a week in advance, and are thus expected to be well-prepared beforehand for the final debate.

Minimum Speaking Time: 4 Minutes per speaker

Maximum Speaking Time: 5 Minutes per speaker

Note:

- Motions for both the Preliminary and Final rounds will be sent one week before the event.
- Use of AI for preparation is strictly prohibited
- All participants are required to wear formal attire. Jeans will not be permitted, footwear should be formal, and hair must be neatly groomed.

Judging Criteria for both rounds:-

1. Content, Structure and Originality
2. Critical Analysis and Logic of Arguments(facts and evidence)
3. Articulation and Poise
4. Effectiveness of team rebuttal answering