A haven where ideas materialise, originality steals the spotlight and feelings are expressed as a vibrant spectrum. Here, visual communication expresses your creativity, encouraging you to create change in the perpetually evolving field of art. This is an invitation for you to be a part of an event that lets you run wild with your imagination, break conventions, and establish a new era of art.

ARTEM—RULES OF PROCEDURE

GENERAL RULES

- Before the event, participants are compulsorily required to attend an interactive online workshop on Saturday, 1st August, 2026 at 7.00 p.m., which will cover topics ranging from the evolution of art history to different techniques. The workshop will be essential for introducing the participants to the aforementioned subjects, which they may integrate into the final event. The link to the workshop will be shared a few days before with the contingent leader.
- On the day, participants will recreate an artwork by a famous artist, which will be assigned on the spot.
- Participants have 10 minutes of research time to pick an artwork by the artist. Only one phone/laptop per participant is permitted. No AI tools are allowed.
- Participants will then be required to alter the concept of the artwork and its art style based on the theme provided by the Event Head on the spot.
- Participants will have 2.5 hours to complete their piece.

Canvas: A3-size paper (provided)

Art Supplies:

- Participants are required to carry their own art supplies.
- Any medium may be used. Participants are encouraged to develop an original art style and carry the required material. Mixed media is allowed.
- The submission MUST be a coloured piece.

Note: SPRAY PAINTS AND OIL PAINTS ARE STRICTLY NOT ALLOWED.
