

GRADES 9 – 12 4 – 10 PARTICIPANTS 3 HOURS PER TEAM

Fabula is a celebration of storytelling where ideas evolve into powerful visual narratives. The event invites participants to explore the essence of change, whether subtle or profound, internal or external, through the medium of film. It challenges teams to craft stories that capture moments of transition, growth and redefinition, with creativity and depth. At Fabula, every story visualised is defined not just by how it begins, but by how it transforms.

FABULA—RULES OF PROCEDURE

GENERAL RULES:

- Team Composition
- Minimum required roles:
 - 1 Director
 - 1 Editor
 - 2 Actors
- Credits must include all team member names and roles but must not reveal the school's identity.

ROUND 1 — SHORT FILM SUBMISSION

Theme: Metamorphosis

Film Duration: 4-5 minutes

Mode: Landscape (16:9)

Language: Primarily English (brief Hindi phrases allowed)

Rules:

- Each team must create a short film clearly reflecting the central theme 'Metamorphosis'.
- Every registered team will be sent an allotted prompt via email shortly after registration, on which they will have to base their main storyline and film concept. Deviation from this will result in penalisation.
- The film may be shot using a professional camera or a high-quality phone camera.
- The film must include English subtitles, especially where any Hindi dialogues or phrases are used.
- Participants must note that the use of any foul language in either English or Hindi will lead to disqualification.
- Teams must be original and creative in their approach. Plagiarism or use of copyrighted content without permission will lead to disqualification.
- The end credits must not reveal the name of the school. Teams must use only their contingent code for identification.
- Participants should also submit their behind-the-scenes photographs via Google Slides.
- Any submissions after 31st July 2026 will lead to negative marking.
