

GRADES 9-12

2-3 PARTICIPANTS
PER TEAM

3 HOURS

Entrepreneurial skills? Check. Otherworldly persuasiveness? Check. Financial wizardry? Check. If you're the person who generates business ideas like a chef crafts recipes, you have come to the right place - here ideas meet practicality and pitching skills are power: Meet Perseverantia's very own version of Shark Tank — Negotium.

NEGOTIUM—RULES OF PROCEDURE

Pitch Rules:

- This will be a one-round event.
- Each team should consist of 2 to 3 participants.
- Each team will pitch their business idea live on the day of the event. Teams must clearly explain their product, business model, expected sales, finances, marketing strategy, etc.
- It must be an original business proposition and not an existing brand.
- Each pitch may last a maximum of 6 minutes, followed by a 2-minute question-and-answer round in which the judges question the participants.
- Each team also must have an ‘ask’ in terms of money against equity and must be able to justify their proposed valuation.
- Teams may use visual aids like a PPT or a prototype.
- Teams have to make a summary of their pitch and send it to us by 10 pm on the 3rd of August, 2026, in PDF format. It can be a downloaded Google Docs or Word Document. It should be emailed to negotium@bombayscottish.in
- The first 15 schools to fill out the registration form will be able to participate.
- Since the theme of this year’s Perseverantia is “Metamorphosis”, participants should ensure their business model has a real-world impact.

General Rules:

- Each team should carry their own devices while pitching. Participants must also arrange their own Wi-Fi.
- AI-generated work will not be accepted and participants found using AI will be disqualified.
- All business ideas must be appropriate for a formal setting. No obscene/vulgar products should be pitched.

NEGOTIUM—RULES OF PROCEDURE

Judging Criteria:

1. Unique Selling Proposition (USP)
2. Practicality of Business Model
3. Finances: Justification for Valuation and Ask.
4. Real-world Impact